Oats sowing is over and some corn planted in this part, but it seems to us that it is too cold just at this time to plant corn.

The road leading from W. G. Proctor's store to Robert Taylor's has been made a county road. Why could not this have been done sooner?

A letter from D. R. and O. A. Gentry now of Indian Ter., states that they had considerable corn planted some time ago so we presume the gentlemen are getting well.

A. G. and J. M. Craig sold to Jack Sutton a horse for $75 and bought of Rice Gooch a combined horse for $18. Also sold to James Holman of Stanford a good mare for $125.

Dead.—Mrs. Steve Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Wells, died Sunday morning after an illness of only a few days. A husband and infant babe survive, and they together with the heart-broken father and mother have the entire sympathy of the people. The remains were laid to rest Monday evening in the old Freedom burying ground.

BOBBED THE GRAVE

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c. guaranteed, at all druggists.

George W. Brown, one of Nelson county's best men, and who was in Gen. John Morgan's cavalry during the Civil War, is dead at Bloomfield, Ky.

BRODHEAD.

Wm. Watson is very sick.

Mrs. Dr. Gravelly is on the sick list.

Well, it does seem that winter will never break.

Lester Hiffon is now working nights at this point.

C. C. Cable visited his best girl at Danville last week.

Charlie Hurt went to Pittsburg Tuesday to work as night agent for a while.

Mrs. Charlie Keisling and sister left last week for Knoxville to visit relatives.

The peach crop is certainly killed this time and in fact all the early fruits.

J. J. Bower, Jr., of Lexington, was shaking hands with friends here Saturday.

Mrs. Lizsie Swinford, of Livingston, was with homefolks Saturday until Monday.

Mrs. Belle Henderson, of Louisville, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Newland.

Little Verna Jarrett has returned from a several weeks' visit to her aunt at Livingston.

It was a mistake in last week's issue about Bro. Bow's wife accompanying him to Brodhead.

The editors of the Interior Journal and Signal are on the war-path. Be quiet gents, family quarrels are out of date.

The farmers are buying lots of fertilizer, and from all prospects there will be a large corn crop planted in this section.

Mr. Smith is helping Miss Ellen Butler talk insurance to the people. Messames Jennie Taten, Addie Riddle and Farris, of Crab Orchard were visiting Mrs. R. L. Colyer last week.

GOOD FOR CHILDREN.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Cough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of cough, croup and LaGrippe. Because it does not pass immediately into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. One Minute Cough Cure is pleasant to take and it is good alike for young and old. Sold at Chas. C. Davis' drugstore.

An Undeveloped Negative.—"I have been courting her for two years," said the disconsolate one, "and I am certain that she will refuse me when I propose."

"Ah, that is interesting," said said the amateur photographer, "a sort of undeveloped negative."

Drugs for Sleeplessness.—The use of narcotic drugs to quiet nerves and overcome sleeplessness is a dangerous practice, and too much cannot be said in depreciation of a resort to such things. The lead at most inevitably to the formation of vicious habits and a slavery worse than death.

CONWAY

Tas Huff has moved from his farm to Conway.

Leonard Watkins and wife, of Berea, were here Sunday.

The fruit in this section is reported as about all killed.

Mr. P. S. Calahan, who is in bad health, went to Knox county this week, to spend a few weeks with relatives.

Harvey Chenaunt, J. J. Wood, J. H. Sigman and others, of this place, attended court at Mt. Vernon Monday.

Some of our farmers are trying the same old plan this spring; to guard their crops with cur dogs, instead of patching the fencing to keep out stock.

Evidently the new depot at this place is complicated from the fact that Capt. Matlock, passenger conductor and one of the best all round railroad men on the line, is yet inquiring how to get in. We would suggest that J. J. Wood, the clever agent would invite the Captain to take a lay off and come down and he would take pleasure in showing and explaining the different departments of the depot.

Mrs. Pauline Shockley, of Berea, was badly hurt by the south bound passenger train at this place on Friday evening of last week. She stepped from the train while it was in motion and was thrown on her head on the platform, dislocating her right wrist and ankle and cutting an ugly gash on her chin. She fell against D. C. Pullins, who was standing near by, who protected her from falling so hard. Had he not been there, probably she would have been seriously hurt. Mr. A. F. Martin, of Louisville, law-agent for the L. & N., was here Saturday after the accident, to investigate the matter.—Later: Mrs. Shockley is growing worse from her injuries and doctors have been telegraphed for this (Tuesday) morning.

A GREAT SENSATION.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Indiana, when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from Asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip, are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by all druggists. Trial bottles free.

"George didn't keep his engagement with me last night," said the girl who was betrothed to him.

"I'd give him a piece of my mind," said her mother.

"Just a little sample of married life," suggested the father.

Written On a Brick.—The oldest loveletter in the world is in the British Museum. It is a proposal of marriage for the hand of an Egyptian Princess, and it was made 3,500 years ago. It is in the form of an inscribed brick.

LEVEL GREEN

Moses said: "It is written that brethren shall not strive with or against each other." We hope, therefore, that our neighboring editors will heed this truly but of warning, and call in their pups.

Big Lish, "Tabby" the lock, has a position as traveling salesman with a saddle and harness firm, located, I think, in Looeyville, as he calls it, and his territory is in the roughest part of Kentucky which makes it very hard on a horse to carry 250 pounds of humanity and all of his samples from store to store, so Tubby concluded to purchase him a buggy, which he accordingly did, but before starting on his "rounds" he also concluded to give Billy, his boss, a lecture practice by way of a few short lessons in his new occupation. Therefore he hitched Billy in after fitting to him a well made and stylish set of harness, laid a lot of samples loosely in, and after patting Billy, arranging his foretop and telling him how becomingly beautiful he looked, rolled in himself, and with noo checks in the left and a big black-snake whip in the right hand, he started for home, down Dry Fork from Nicely's store. After proceeding a short distance at a slow pace, and forgetting as we suppose, the formidableness of the weepin he held in his paw, he struck Billy such a blow that it aroused ever his animal heat and hosspride that was in his veins, body and limbs, so he concluded that sumthin had went wrong with his master and he started with the speed of an antelope pursued by the hunter's hounds on the western plains.

Tubby draped his lines, halloed "whoa Billy" at the top of his stentorian voice, but alas, there was no "whoa" to Billy, on he went the samples flying in every direction like dry leaves before a whirlwind. Tubby was too big heavy to fall out of his buggy and too badly scared to jump, so there he sat as glued to his seat until Billy made a sudden turn, upset the vehicle and left him laying on his back still holding his whip and shouting "whoa Billy, whoa Billy," but on Billy went leaving a hind wheel here and a fore wheel there, the top torn to shreds lodged high up on a limb, bits of the bel and pieces of harness "like fragments strewn the road." Billy arrived home with the collar, throat latch and a small piece of browband still clinging to him. The family took Billy's back track, expecting every minute to find Tubby a horribly mangled corpse, but lo, in due time, to their great joy and utter astonishment, found him sitting in the middle of the road able to talk and still holding his "black snake whip."

They asked if he was badly hurt, and he claimed that his back bone had been fractured and that he couldn't stand, but this proved false. The crowd came down from Nicely's store that had heard the roar and clatter of the wagon and thought it to be another cyclone, and began a search for the lost wagon, samples &c. They soon collected enough of the "debris" of the buggy to make a new one, a cart and a log-sled and had many basketfuls left over.

Tubby said he couldn't account for the strange actions of Billy unless he got scared at John Graves who was sitting by the road side and acting very strangely, but the unanimous decision of audiences was that when Tubby walloped Billy so fearfully hard with his big whip that he turned his head and saw him seated in the buggy which scared him out of all his "hoss sen-e."

Very truly,
BUCK VARNON

OUR NEXT CONGRESSMAN.

FOR SIGNAL:—

In a former article we had occasion to compliment a speech on imperialism made in Congress, by the Hon. George G. Gilbert. Recently we read with pleasure another speech by him; "on the republican party and what it stands for." In this speech he makes a powerful summary of the deception, fraud and chicanery practiced by the party to deceive and swindle the masses.

Any thinking democrat who will read carefully these two productions of Mr. Gilbert must be compelled to admit that he is the equal if not the superior of any representative we have in either House of Congress.

Between Mr. Gilbert and the writer there is no bond of relationship, no ring influence, nor personal interest whatever. We simply believe in giving praise where praise is due, and aid to the worthy. Mr. Gilbert has made us a very able and efficient public servant and it is due him and to our interest to keep him in our service. He is the right man in the right place. His education and general knowledge are of that superior order that make him a power in Congress and cause him to be respected and admired by members of the first order of intelligence and greatest influence.

Is there any possible reason why we shall retire Mr. Gilbert and substitute some untried and inexperienced man?

True, the very qualifications that make him eminent in the halls of Congress become, to some degree, a source of weakness among the masses. He can not and will not employ the resources of the bumper politician, nor stoop to the ring influence or chicanery so characteristic of the modern aspirant. True, he has served three terms in Congress; but this has been ably done and should be a strong reason for his retention there. A valid economic principle in business is, to retain a servant who proves himself to be capable and trusty.

It seems to us that the question of our next Congressman narrows itself to the fine point—whether we shall experiment with an unknown and untried quantity or hold fast that which we have tried and know to be capable and true.

J. S. REPERT.

Poor Feebles (about to be operated on for appendicitis)—Doctor, before you begin I wish you would read and have our pastor, the Rev. Mr. Harps, come over.

Dr. Cutter—Certainly, if you wish it, but—ah!

Feebles—I'd like to be opened with prayer.

CRAB ORCHARD

Miss Winnie Condon continues quite sick.

J. H. Collier has been troubled for some time with rheumatism.

Miss Ida Holdam is suffering with a severe cold, not able to leave her room. Her many friends hope to see her out soon.

Mrs. C. H. Singleton and her two bright little boys, have returned from Henderson, N. C., where she has been visiting friends.

J. T. Chadwick was called to Tazewell, Tenn., to see his aged father, who was not expected to live. He took his two daughters with him.

We would like to have Buck Varnon give us some information about March borrowing twelve days from April. We always thought it an idle saying.

The postmaster received a present of a barrel of fine apples, from some unknown friend, a few days since. He has enjoyed them hugely, or at least his better half has.

J. R. Edmiston says he has been troubled with rheumatism in his feet for over a year, until he took three bottles of Liquezone, and since has had no symptoms of the disease.

Mrs. Jno. McCarley spent last Saturday night with her grandfather Isaac Whitehead. She was accompanied as far as Brodhead by Miss Belle Meachum, who spent the night with friends at that place. They called, while on their way home and took dinner Sunday with Mrs. Patten.

Mesdames, M. E. Fish, S. E. Brooks, Katherine McAlister and Mary Bronaugh, (all widows) dined with Mrs. Patten on Monday last. I believe we have more widows in Crab Orchard than any town of its size in Kentucky—27 in the town and suburbs,—and we have only four widowers, who are all getting along on the shady side of seventy. Our widows are none of them so old, and all handsome, fine looking ladies, but you needn't ask any of them how old they are.

MANAGER WANTED.

Trustworthy lady or gentleman to manage business in this county and adjoining territory for well and favorably known house of solid financial standing. $20.00 straight cash salary and expenses paid each Monday by check direct from headquarters. Expense money advanced. Position permanent. Address Manager, 810, Como Block, Chicago, Illinois.

ADJOINING COUNTIES

Dr. Frederick W. Huit has accepted the presidency of Central University.

Former Commonwealth's Attorney John L. Isaacs, of Manchester, Ky., was robbed of $300 in the tenderloin district of Frankfort.

The Shelby News says there is living in Anderson county a remarkable woman, Mrs. Lydia Perry, who has fifteen children, 83 grand-children, 91 great-grand-children and 5 great-great-grand-children, or a total of 194 living descendants. She is in good health and is but 79 years of age.

A meeting of stockholders and directors of the Crab Orchard Fair & Racing Association was held Saturday and it was decided to hold a three days' fair beginning July 20th. Mr. R. H. Bronaugh was elected president and Mr. W. D. Wallin, secretary. Good selections, both of them.—Interior Journal.

W. P. Walton, secretary of the Kentucky House of Reform Board, has sent to the various County Judges a communication to the effect that the House of Reform in Fayette county is crowded and that it will be impossible to receive inmates for some time. An effort was made to have the last Legislature appropriate $15,000 to increase the capacity of the house, and, failing in this, the Board of Trustees has sent out the notification.

Mr. Henry C. Thompson, of London, Ky., has been here for several days going over the ground with the agents and civil engineers of the L. & N. railroad with a view of erecting a large coal elevator on a tract of land owned by the railroad company. Mr. Thompson has also examined several plans to ascertain the cost of building the elevator, and it was said by an associate of his that negotiations had already been completed for the erection of the plant. Frank B. Carr, general agent for the L. & N., would not discuss the project, but intimated that negotiations had been opened by Mr. Thompson looking to the building of a mammoth elevator for coal.—Courier Journal.

HON. D. L. MOORE.

Mr. Moore is a candidate for Congress in the Eleventh district, to succeed Hon. G. G. Gilbert, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Your support is earnestly solicited.

ELSEWHERE in this issue we publish an article written by Mr. J. S. Reppert setting forth his reasons why Hon. G. G. Gilbert should be returned to Congress. It is not our purpose to take issue with Mr. Reppert at all, for we cheerfully give him space for his article, desiring at all times to be perfectly fair with the opposition, especially when it comes in our own party. We have not a word to say against Mr. Gilbert, but on the other hand, have much praise for him and should he be the nominee we can heartily and cheerfully give him our support, for it was for him that we cast our first vote and are proud of the fact that we did. He has been a true and faithful representative, ever ready to do the bidding of his constituency. The time is approaching nigh, when the democrats of the Eighth Congressional district are going to be called upon to name a man, who will be their standard bearer at the coming November election. In the field for the nomination, there are already three announced candidates, the Hon. G. G. Gilbert of Shelby, Hon. Dan Moore of Mercer, and Hon. Harvey Helm of Lincoln. Which shall it be? As stated before Mr. Gilbert has been a valiant officer and has done well his duty, but is not six years long enough to stay in office? Is it the spirit of our constitution and was it the intention of our forefathers, who founded this the grandest country the world has ever known, that those placed at the helm should remain for a life time. Nay, not so. Washington's refusal of a third election should be a precedence for all office-seekers. Col. Moore is a life-long, true-blue democrat and should he be the choice of the majority, would be an honor to the district. The last but not least, of the aspirants is our good friend Harvey Helm, a Chesterfield in appearance, a Marshall on the stump and a Carlyle at his desk. In years he is the junior of either of the gentlemen, but in experience in many respects he is probably the senior of either and if placed in Congress would stand cheek by jowl with any who might oppose him. The last thing we wish to mention is the geographical situation of Rockcastle relative to the other counties from which the various candidates come. Shelby is in the extreme northern part of the district some hundred miles away, Mercer between forty and fifty, while Lincoln forms a part of our northwestern boundary line and by reason of such location, it is there that we may expect our closest ties of love and friendship to exist. It was there that a number of Rockcastle's noblest citizens have gone and been honored in office, by the voters of that county. The good book says: "Love thy neighbor as thyself," and the Hon. Harvey Helm is our very, very close neighbor.

EDITOR WALTON makes a big ado about our inconsistency, because in one issue we said: "we were willing to give Mr. Hearst credit for all he deserves." If that is inconsistency, we are guilty of the charge for we are still of the same mind, but we are glad that our inconsistency does not effect us in the way that our good friend Ed. Walton is effected by his consistency, in preventing us from taking a stand before we know what is going to be the popular side.

HON. JOHN SAM OWSELEY, JR., of Stanford, and ex-Commonwealth's Attorney of that district, has announced himself a candidate for County Attorney of Lincoln. Mr. Owsley is one of the ablest prosecutors in the State and it is very probable that he will be nominated without any opposition from the Democrats and opposition by the Republicans in the final race, would cut but very little ice.

EDITOR WALTON of the Interior Journal is one of his fits of passion, criticises in a very severe manner the editor of the Mt. Vernon Signal for the attitude taken relative to the Hearst Presidential boom. Had we known the serious effect that it was going to have on Mr. Walton, to speak a few truths about Mr. Hearst, we would probably have refrained from speaking so plainly, but we thought the editor of the I. J. was acquainted with the facts as we gave them about his devoted friend. Ah, Mr. Walton don't worry yourself about us having to bolt the ticket should Mr. Hearst be nominated—of which there is little probability. This we have never done, and should such action ever take place, we can rest assured that the editor of the I. J. would be with us, unless held in line by a donation of $250,000 to the campaign fund. If it has reached a point where a man's strength, socially, morally, politically and otherwise, is counted by the amount of money contributed to the campaign fund, God forbid that another generation should ever rise to see such a deplorable state of affairs.

CONGRESSMAN BAKER of New York, has a keen sense of justice. He has made five efforts to hitch on to appropriation bills a provision to reimburse the railroads of the country for the amount they have expended in dead-heading the President and his suite. The Republicans do not appreciate Mr. Baker's liberality. In fact, they seem to resent it. They probably think that a frequent railroad train is a proper prerequisite of the executive office.

A MONUMENT in the form of a drinking fountain has been erected at Burston, England, on the trough of which is this inscription: "In memory of the mate fidelity of the 400,000 horses killed and wounded at the call of their masters during the South African War." What's comment on war!

SENATOR GORMAN says he does not know on whom the Democrats will unite, but that the party is going to present a united front and win. The unanimous instruction of New York for Judge Parker indicates that he will be the man.

THE CENSUS BUREAU estimates that our population will increase a million a year even if President Joseph Smith enforces his decree that nobody else shall have as many wives as he has.

According to Editor Walton, of the Interior Journal, any human-being, who donates liberally to a campaign fund, is a suitable candidate for any office he wants—even the presidency.

YOUR HUSBAND is the uxorious name of the British Colonel who is actively teaching the Tibetans the beauties of civilization and Christianity with a machine gun.

THE EVENING POST, the Interior Journal and John Whalen are all three for Hearst. Trio illustrious.

—Aure vote.

POLITICS AND POLITICIANS

The Hearst Agents in Tennessee have given up hope of capturing the delegation to St. Louis.

Mr. Bryan is said to have soured on the Hearst boom for the Democratic nomination for President.

The taking of testimony in the Eleventh district congressional contest will begin at Washington May 3rd.

The Republican Leaders in Congress are still hopeful of so shaping legislation as to reach an adjournment on April 28.

Gov. Vardaman, of Mississippi, in an interview at St. Louis, says he considers President Roosevelt the nation's greatest peril.

The Democrats of New York in convention at Albany by a vote of 301 to 149 adopted a platform instructing their delegates to the national convention to support Judge Alton B. Parker for the presidential nomination.

The Hearst delegates to the number of about 100 bolted the New Jersey Democratic convention at Trenton and elected a contesting delegation to the national convention. The regular convention elected an uninstructed delegation.

William C. Owens was declared the nominee for congress in the Fifth district by the Republican District Committee, which held the candidacy of Chas. A. Parker to be invalid because he had not presented a list of election officers along with his announcement.

The destruction of the royal palace at Seoul, Korea, caused a loss estimated at $3,000,000.

SCRAPS

(BY JET.)

The body of the late Herbert Spencer was cremated. And what of his soul?

Teacher—Now, Tommy, can you tell me what it is that makes men hunt for pearls and diamonds? Tommy—Girls.

Education has many good results, but none that is more sure than the sense of power and self-reliance with which it invests its possessor.

Mr. Reed Smoot has captured, through the primary elections, control of the Republican State convention of Utah. Do you think he will be ejected from the United States Senate? No.

Final Choice.—"You're the first girl—"

"Oh, don't!" she said; "For whether or no the past is past The point now is to make me feel Quite sure that I shall be the last."

Worth Trying.—"Women claim that the way to get on with a man is to give him plenty of nicely cooked food."

Well, answered Mr. Sirus Barker, irritably, "why don't some of them try it?"

Such Nice Long Ones.—"Farmer Sawyer, what is your daughter, Mary, going to be when she finishes at college?"

"Well, I kinder reckon she'll teach school. She thinks she'd like the vacations."

"What do you think of the new Japanese ultimatum?" asked the young man who was trying to make conversation.

"Very nice," answered Mrs. Carnal, "although, to tell you the truth, I like plain, old-fashioned fruits the best."

John and The Old Man.—"I never see John these days. Where is he now?"

"He's off somewhere a-larnin' of Latin an' Greek."

"And what's the old man doin'?"

"Splittin' rails in dialect for to pay John's bills."

An Old Quilt.—After ten years' incessant labor Mrs. Lizzie Hoffman, of Anthony, has finished what is probably the oddest bed quilt made of 14,600 pieces of silk or all kinds and colors, and every piece of silk came from a different bride's hat.

He Had a Way With Him.—Jane Seymour was boasting to Anne Boleyn.

"Henry has just asked me for my hand," she remarked.

"That's nothing," retorted the Queen, "he has just asked me for my head." Subsequent events showed both ladies granted the request.

"What is your name?" inquired the Justice.

"Pete Smith," responded the vagrant.

"What occupation?" continued the Court.

"Oh, nothing much at present; just circulate in round."

"Retired from circulation for 30 days," pronounced the Court, dryly.

Asked and Answered.—"What is your idea of love?" asked the dear girl who was scheduled to graduate during leap year.

"Love," answered the old bachelor who had even lost faith in patent hair restorers, "is an obsession that causes two otherwise sane young people to flee from their happy homes and go to living in a flat."

With a Moral.—There is an old story about a Greek maiden named Eulalie. She wanted to be friend with Lucinda, a very gay and worldly woman. One day she said to her father, Sophronius: "I would like to call upon Lucinda. May I go today?"

"I cannot allow you to do that, my daughter," replied Sophronius. "But, father, you must think me exceedingly weak if you suppose I should be injured by going," said Eulalie, crossly.

Her father stooped down and picked up a piece of dirty coal and held it out. "Take that in your hand, my child. It will not hurt you."

She did. Her fingers became smudged. Eulalie did not understand. "Why," she said, "did you give me this? It blackens."

"Yes," came the reply; "coal when it does not burn blackens."

Do you see the lesson of the old Greek? Bad company will blacken if it does not burn.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

On Friday the Court of Appeals decided a case that will be of interest to every National bank in the State. It was on an appeal from a Danville bank on a question of taxation. The court says that it was held under the previous statute that the shares of stock in national banks might be assessed to the shareholders by the assessors and should be given in by the shareholder in the list of his personal property, and that the act of 1900 did not, therefore, make that taxable which was not taxable before, but simply provided another mode for the assessment of the shares of stock and the payment of the taxes. The court says it was the duty of the President and Cashier to list the shares of stock with the Assessors. It also says that while neither the bank nor its President nor its Cashier is the owner of the shares of stock, the bank is made by the act of 1900 the agent of the shareholder and the notice to it is a notice to his agent within the meaning of section 4241. The act thus held to be valid and another act passed by the late Legislature, placing the national banks and State banks on the same footing as regards State and local taxation.

MATRIMONIAL.

A few days since a comedy of errors was enacted in the parlor of the Wellington Hotel at Evansville, Ind. Gus Meyers and Miss Pearl Owen, of Sebree, Ky., came there to be married and were accompanied by Robert McCurry and Miss Zimonia Grayson.

Meyers procured a license and sent for Magistrate H. F. Schrader, who came to the hotel and by mistake married McCurry and Miss Grayson. When he realized his mistake he turned and united Meyers and Miss Owen. McCurry said it was not his intention to get married, but as it had been done he went and secured a marriage license and the Magistrate signed it to make the ceremony legal.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson in the International Series for April 24, 1904.—The Mission of the Seventy.

THE LESSON TEXT.

(Luke 10:1-17)
1. After these things the Lord appointed other 70 also, and sent them two and two before His face into every city and place, whither He Himself would come.
2. Therefore said He unto them: The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few; pray ye, therefore, the Lord of the harvest, that He would send forth laborers into His harvest.
3. Go your ways; behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.
4. Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes; and salute no man by the way.
5. And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say: Peace be to this house.
6. And if the Son of Peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it; if not, it shall turn against you again.
7. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give; for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.
8. And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you.
9. And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them: The Kingdom of God is come nigh unto you.
10. But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go out into the streets of that city, and say: We commend thee, O city, which rejectest the word of God; thou shalt be desolate.
11. Even so will we do unto thee, because thou hast rejected My word: therefore shall thy people be as a flock without a shepherd.
12. But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city.
13. Woe unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented.
14. But I say unto you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Tyre and Sidon, than for you.
15. And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shalt be thrust down to hell.
16. He that heareth My word, and doeth it, shall have life everlasting, and shall not come into condemnation; but he that doeth not, shall come into condemnation.
